

Zohar ha Kaddosh Kedoshim 82a

This is honoring father and mother: That the father will command his son to do something and his son immediately fulfills his father's request without any delay

Tahorat ha Koddesh Perek Zain

He who causes suffering to his father or mother with words and on purpose, this blemish is great and terrible, for it blemishes the first 2 letters of the name of Hashem, and the person should think how many times he has afflicted his parents from the time he was young, or how many times he has diminished their honor, and how many thousands upon thousands evil creatures were created from this sin, and even a small action against the father or the mother, the blemish that it produces reaches the highest places, for the Holy One Blessed be He equated His honor with theirs and our Holy Rabbis Z'L have said (Kiddushin 31b) Fortunate he who did not see his Parents, because of the great blemish that the sin of afflicting them causes.

Tikkune Zohar, Hakdama 7b

A son needs to work for his father and mother, and to become for them like a servant, an aid, a chair and a bench underneath.

And every time that a person heeds the voice of his father or the voice of his mother he fulfills a great Mitzvah
